“Old Iron” on Parade Daily at 2pm at August 10-12, 2010 Empire Farm Days

Seneca Falls, NY - The daily 2 pm parade of “old iron” at the August 10-12, 2010 Empire Farm Days provides a rolling showcase for highly-prized classic and antique tractors. Every classic make and model from Farmalls to Minneapolis-Molines will be on parade through the 300-acre showgrounds at Rodman Lott & Son Farms at 2973 Rte 414 south of Seneca Falls, New York.

The three-day agricultural extravaganza will also provide farmers with the opportunity to learn about the latest “steel” equipped with GPS technology and to test drive Global Positioning Systems tractors daily 10am to 2 pm on the northeast side of the grounds.

Farmers currently using GPS on their farms will share their experiences in daily panel discussions at 2:30pm in the Special Events Center.
