

Press Release

June 2008

Empire State Potato Growers Inc to honor its scholarship winner at EFD

The Empire State Potato Growers association is pleased to announce its annual scholarship winner is Emmaline Long, Bergen, NY. Emmaline is the daughter of Richard and Suzanne Long. She is a recent graduate from Byron-Bergen Central High School, Bergen, NY. She will enter Cornell University August 2008, majoring in agricultural sciences.

Emmaline has been active in her local 4-H chapter, and has worked on GIS Community Mapping. She has helped to train others in GIS Mapping throughout NYS and the US. She is currently a member of the National 4-H GIS/GPS Leadership Team. In August 2006 she addressed over 14,000 conference attendees at the International ESRI Users Conference in San Diego, CA. She has served in many and varied leadership roles in local, state and national capacities. She is a member of National Honor Society and has participated in clubs and athletics during her high school career.

Emmaline will be recognized at EFD's NY Ag Leadership Luncheon on Wed., Aug. 6. during Empire Farm Days.

For more information, please contact Melanie Wickham: mwickham@empirefarmdays.com